

Jazz riot of colours - Przemek Baranowski

“Jazz riot of colours” – an exhibition of Przemek Baranowski

8th February – 20th March 2009

Jazzownia Liberalna, Warszawa, Rynek Starego Miasta, ul. Jezuicka 1/3

On the Jazzownia's exhibition there is presenting the paintings and graphics of Przemek Baranowski (born in 1982). He was a graduate of ASP in Wroclaw, and from 2006 he was an active member of the creative group “Mistake in Art’. His work call attention to intense colours, which sometimes they transform in to fluorescent tint. The movement is very characteristic for the composition of his work. The rough mobility created through penetration or crossing smooth lines with sharp figure forms.

The rough mobility created through penetration or crossing smooth lines with sharp figure forms. It appears to be a man shape, which the artist build through abstract shapes placed in a cosmo-magical space. He take his inspiration from the Futurist Art as well as the Surrealistic Art and mixes it with a hint of his own expression; A bit of reflection on the condition of a modern human, a pinch of fantasy about the future and in the end ,a handful of ‘’Talent" combined with "Improvisation’" - This is his recipe for Art.
