

activity

In art and in live

human, his/her history, emotions and environment is of the most importance.

Gallery presents creativity of Polish artists through website but simultaneously through preparing exhibitions in the restaurants, clubs, cofeeshops, hotels and another companies in order enriching public space with art.

It supports artists's promotion in the country and abroad participating actively in international conferences, exhibitions and art fairs. It willing to cooperation with other galleries around the world. It's open towards cooperation with NGO at the execution of various interesting artistic activities and cultural happenings.

We kindly invite to visit our galleries

Magdalena Furmanik-Kowalska